Business League Has Rousing Meeting.

Thursday evening will not soon be forgotten by those who attended the meeting of the Business League held in Martin's hall.
It was a rousing meeting being largely attended by the business men and women of Columbia.
The address of the evening was delivered by Rev. J. M. Myers.
The Rev. Myers is not an educated man, but for down right common sense he has no superior in South Carolina. His address took—it sank into the hearts of his hearers. "Co-operation" was his subject. And hear us—from this meeting the Negroes of this city are going to, as far as practicable, trade with Negroes. The speech by Dr. Dunbar and the short address by Dr. Haygood were gems of thought. These men practice what they preach and the other leaders will have to do so or get out of the way.

Teachers for Waverley Union School.

At a meeting of the trustees of Waverley Union school held Tuesday, June 22nd, the following teachers were elected: Misses C. A. Jackson, principal, C. L.
Daniels, musician; W. E. Nelson, R. V. Penn, R. E. Johnson, O.
E. Burns, Helen Reddick, Daisy Brown, Anna Cooper and Lizzie St. Claire.

Welton--Martin.

The marriage of Mrs. L. J.
Welton of 1017 Pine street, the evening of June the third was both a pleasant and agreeable surprise to their many friends and admirers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. G. Johnson at the home of the bride in the presence of a few intimate friends of the couple.

Mrs. Martin, was a widow of a little more than two years standing and Mr. Martin is a widower of about fourteen months. Mr. Martin aside from being a first class carpenter, is now agent for North Carolina Mutual and is making good. He is also honored Superintendent of Ladson Presbyterian Sunday school.

Zion Sunday School to Picnic Tuesday.

The Zion Baptist Sunday school will hold its annual picnic at Millwood Tuesday, June 29th.
The fare for round trip on auto trucks for children will be twenty cents; for adults thirty cents.
They invite every body to go out with them and enjoy the day among the bushes and brambles.
There will be plenty to eat and drink. The party will leave the church at 8 o'clock sharp, Tuesday morning. The following promises to be made.

Birth Night Reception.

Mr. John A. Jackson was the recipient last Monday night, of a huge birth night reception, given by his better-half, Mrs.
Jackson at their home 2202 Senate street. Quite a number of friends were out and enjoyed the evening immensely from 8:30 to 11:30. Chicken salad, cream and candies were bountifully served.
Dr. D. D. Chappelle, the beloved family physician, Rev. J.
C. Gilmore, Messrs A. P. Porter, and deacon John Suber distinguished themselves as first rate after dinner speakers on this occasion.

Rev. C. H. Lee Dead.

The Rev. Choice Lee of Union is no more possibly. In point of service, he was the oldest preacher in the Pacolet River Association whose territory comprises the whole of Union county. In the most prominent churches of that and adjacent counties he had been preaching for nearly forty years.
After an illness of two months he died last Saturday and on Monday at the Cornith Baptist church of Union, where his membership was, eulogistic exercises were held, at which the following spoke: Rev. J. C. Tobin, T.
C. Phillips, H. K. Bates, J. H.
Sartors, Dr. A. A. Sims and J.
C. White of Columbia, and G.
Whitehead.

To these services, people for miles around, came. A crowd seldom seen in Union attended.
The deceased leaves a brother, deacon M. A. Lee; a sister, Mrs.
Cornelia Renwick, and six children to mourn their loss.

Mrs. Belle Williams of New York Entertained.

An up-to-date reception was tendered Mrs. Belle Williams of Mamaroneck, New York Monday night May 30th by Mrs. Goldie James, 1225 Barnwell street. The evening was delightfully whiled away in social chat interspersed with music. Mrs. Belle Williams was formerly of Columbia being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.
J. Marshall, who now reside at 1224 Henderson street. Quite a bevy of the social stars were out, among whom were: Mesdames Lula Porter, Carrie Wellington, Mary Johnson, Laura Williams, Carrie Wilson, Essie Hopkins, Misses Julia Weathers, Charity Williams, Elizabeth Marshall, Nancy Carter, Maud Bryant, Isabel Bolden; Messrs Julius Bryant, Matthew Perrin, Jefferson Marshall, T. Lowndes Black, Bennie Hopkins, Masters Malvern Martin and Deal Marshall; Deacon John Suber, Dr. J. C.
White and manager Morgan. An ice course was temptingly served.

Teachers for St. Mary Sch

The following are the instructors chosen to teach in the St.
Mary Episcopal school during the coming session: Rev. E.
Willett, principal; Mrs. S. E.
Sims, Mrs. Daisy Williams, Misses Mary R. Saxon, Emma Long, Anna Baker, and Catharine Jefferson.

elder daughter of Henry and Minnie Felder of 1220 Henderson street, left last Saturday for Pomaria Maria to spend 2 weeks with her grand mother and aunts.

Dr. J. H. Goodwin, M. D.
Columbia's popular and energetic physician has been selected superintendent of Zion Baptist Sunday School. He has launched a campaign for 500 Sunday School children. Now watch Zion's Sunday school grow.

Mrs. D. B. Early, the proprietor of the popular cafe on Lady St. died suddenly on Wednesday night last. Her funeral, at which her pastor, Dr. N. F.
Hagood, officiated, was held at Sydney Park C. M. E. church Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Caesar Brisbane formerly of Richmond Va. was married to Miss Hattie Cross the adopted daughter of Mrs. B. H. Williams, Wednesday night June 16th at 8.30 o'clock, The Rev. N. F. Hagood,
